

NO BULL RADIO: Udo Erasmus, Bill Llewellyn, and Tony Doherty

Contributed by Dave Palumbo
Monday, 17 March 2008

No Bull Radio welcomes Udo Erasmus, PhD, the man who popularized the use of flax seed oil and who authored the groundbreaking book, Fats that Heal, Fats That Kill. He also developed Udo's Oil, the popular essential fatty acid supplement.

Bill Llewellyn, one of the industry's top authorities on anabolic steroids and performance-enhancing drugs, returns for another information-packed Question and Answer session with The Muscle Mob!

And don't miss our Australian correspondent and friend, Tony Doherty, who's returned to fill us in on what happened this past weekend at the 2008 New Zealand Pro Show. You won't want to miss Tony's funniest Lee Priest stories!

Remember , "You never know who'll stop by with The Muscle Mob!"
