Tuesday, 31 March 2009

Beginning April 1, 2009, we will temporarily shut down the MD Cyberstore. This is being done so we can work to introduce the NEW MUSCULAR DEVELOPMENT SUPPLEMENT SUPER STORE and further enhance the site and update features, in order to satisfy you, our customers. We've heard your voices— you've asked for specific products and features— and we listened. Now your store will be better than ever!

Look for the new Muscular Development Supplement Super Store to arrive within weeks, packed with more of your favorite brands and products, upgraded customer service and engaging, cutting-edge research, along with the industry's most competitive prices.

We take pride in all that we do here and our store is no exception. Your satisfaction is paramount to us and the revamped store will fulfill your wants and needs. Thank you for your patience during this short transition process.

Please understand that any current orders or backorder items are still being processed. If you have any servicing questions, don't hesitate to e-mail service@mdcyberstore.com.

Thank you for your continued patronage, and for being a part of the biggest, best bodybuilding website on the planet!
