

Past Jr. Nationals Winners and Losers

Contributed by Shawn ray
Saturday, 13 June 2009

The NPC Jr. Nationals Contest in the landscape of the NPC as it relates to the IFBB, is a very significant Contest leading to the Pro Stage!

Here are some of the more "Glamorous" names who own the Title ...

The NPC Jr. Nationals Contest in the landscape of the NPC as it relates to the IFBB, is a very significant Contest which served as a "Platform" for many future great champions in our sport on the Pro Stage!

We have seen the growth in both Male and Female Champions rising from the early stages of their careers by way of winning the Jr. National Title or at least "Attempting" to win it, go on to become successful in relation to what they accomplished. Or more importantly, what they did not accomplish in this show!

Here are some of the more "Glamorous" names who own the Title:

Lee Haney

Paul DeMayo

Eddie Robinson

Evan Centopani

Lenda Murray

Kim Chizevsky

Phil Heath

Valerie Waugaman

Michael Lockett

Steve McLeod

Bridgett Murray

Christine Sabo

Robert Washington

Chastity Sloan

Sean Allen

Those notables "Losers" who tried and failed but went on to other successes would include:

Kevin Levrone

Flex Wheeler

Shawn Ray

-
This years contest could contain one of our sports greatest athletes?

-
Looking at the above referenced names, who knew what was in store for these guys?

As we approach this years contest brought to us by IFORCE Nutrition held in Chicago, Illinois - Friday & Saturday June 19 th& 20th!

Be sure to catch the "PLAY by PLAY" Live right here on the Forum!

I'll be joined with last years Heavyweight Winner, Mike Liboratore and 2007 Arnold Classic Winner, Victor Martinez who will be chiming in with their opinions on the action taking place onstage while it's happening!